

Vowels

Add the vowel symbol in the relative position to the consonant that precedes it. Use the placeholder for single vowels or to indicate a vowel by itself. Both the methods are correct.

Vowel "U" is written as consonant "V".

Note: you can use vowels either attached or detached from the consonant shape.

Punctuation and Doubles

Note: you can use punctuation as in Spanish, with the first symbol being at the beginning of the sentence and the other at the end. You can also just use the final symbol by itself as in latin alphabet.

[...] = .
 < ... > = ?
 | ... | = !
 - = ,
 -- = ;

Add ~ either over or under a letter to make it double.

BLISS

An easy to memorize, simple, readable and nice-looking writing system based on five basic shapes and a small set of flexible rules.